ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF BOOKLET

Shipper, consignor or agent executing this agreement on that party's / parties' behalf has full authority to order services and enter into this agreement. In accordance with the rules of the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC), before you move, the carrier (the moving company) is required to ensure you (the shipper) have been given the booklet, Important Information for Persons Moving Household Goods. You may choose not to receive a booklet from this carrier if you previously received one from another source. You are entitled to payment of $100 from your carrier if your carrier fails to ensure that you have received the booklet before starting your move.

www.Transparentmoving.net is our website if you seek to obtain a copy of this booklet at any time. I have received the aforementioned booklet: _____

All items included in your shipment that are considered to be of extraordinary (unusual) value must be specifically identified and TP must be advised that they are included in the shipment. Items of extraordinary value are defined as those having a value greater than $100 per pound. Typical household goods items that frequently have a value in excess of $100 per pound per article are: currency, coins, jewelry, precious metals, precious or semiprecious stones or gems, gold, silver or platinum articles including silverware and service sets, china sets, crystal or figurines, fur or fur garments, antiques, handmade rugs or tapestries, rare collectible items or objects of art, computer software programs, manuscripts or other rare documents. Of course, other items may also fall into this category and must be identified as well.

COVERAGE FOR LOSS AND DAMAGE

As explained in the "Important Information..." booklet, there are options available to cover loss or damage to your goods. These options are:

- (1) 60 cents per pound per article - This option provides for recovery for lost or damaged item(s) based on 60 cents times the weight of the item(s). This coverage is provided at no additional charge.
- (2) Actual Cash Value - This option provides for recovery for lost or damaged items based on actual cash value (depreciated value) at the time of loss or damage, up to the total dollar amount of valuation declared by shipper. You may be charged for coverage provided under this option.
- (3) Full Value Protection - This option provides for recovery for lost or damaged items based on current replacement value at the time of loss or damage, up to the total dollar amount of valuation declared by shipper. You may be charged for coverage provided under this option.

Shipper represents that it has not provided TP any food, medicine, medical devices, items to treat or assist a disabled person, or items used for care of a minor child in the shipment. Shipper disclaims any right to assert the aforementioned items are being shipped with TP and will not demand any such release of said items from TP at any time of the move.
